Pointers on Filling Out the Selection Form

1 Do It Soon

Before July 15, TRT members get priority selections.

2 Go Online Instead

It's fast and easy and avoids any possible miscommunications. Go to hh.trt.org instead of filling out and returning this form.

3 Mailing Addresses

If you would like some of the tickets mailed somewhere other than your home address and you are filling out the paper form, please include a separate piece of paper that lists the names and addresses of the attendees.

4 Free Tickets

Tickets are free for the following people:

- TRT members. Adults and children under 36 years old.
- Non-member adults under 36 years old.
- Active military personnel.

For those not falling into those groups, the ticket prices are listed in Section 7 of the form.

5 Call with Questions

Call the TRT office at 732-308-0055 if you have any questions regarding the form. A quick phone call may avoid any confusion later on.

NEW THIS YEAR!!!

Family Room

A family room will be available during services. Children accompanied by a responsible adult may use the room to enjoy a collection of games, drinks, and snacks.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

To TRT family,

Eight years ago, my family joined TRT. It didn't take long to realize that these are MY kind of people. The warm interactions, the thoughtful conversations and the level of intelligence and social conscience woven into everything we do here, drew me closer. I was born in Israel and came to the US as an adult, so joining a temple was not a given. It was a choice to be affiliated. It was clear that we had to be part of a Jewish community, so we and our kids don't lose our values as Jews. Prior to 2011, we were members of other synagogues. And that's why I can honestly say: TRT is a gem!

To me, being part of the community meant I wanted to help wherever I could. I joined the Youth Committee and then was asked to join the Board, then served as the Chair of Membership and Marketing. I feel an amazing comraderie with all my Board members who care deeply for all that we make happen at TRT. From social events, to social justice projects, to musical worship, to celebrating simchas, to holding someone's hand at a time of need, I met people who want to belong. Just like I do. Now, I'm stepping up to the position of Temple President with passion and commitment to continue the legacy of Temple Rodeph Torah.

Since the day I joined, I met so many members. Many of them became friends, and a few, dear friends for life. Our community is truly as unique as it is remarkable, and I can't wait to meet each one of you during my term.

Welcoming the Hebrew New Year of 5780 presents many opportunities for us to connect. Check the registration form and see all the services from the Selichot BBQ and service on Saturday, September 21st to Erev Rosh Hashanah, Rosh Hashannah Days 1 and 2, through Yom Kippur on October 8 and 9. I will be at every one of them. So, we will at least have a chance to get introduced. But that will only be the beginning. I want to make sure that what we do here makes a difference to you and to your family. The only way we can accomplish that is by discovering it together.

Note the choice between our Traditional service and our Rock Hashanah service on Monday, September 30. Since these services are on a first-come, first-served basis, we urge you to register now by completing and returning the form in this packet, or by registering online at hh.trt.org.

Our tradition of giving tzedakah during the High Holidays is a mitzvah that has helped Temple Rodeph Torah thrive through the years. Last year, our temple family helped raise well over $100,000! Your generosity goes a long way allowing us to continue to provide programs for all ages. I hope you continue to support what we planned to do in the year ahead, especially as challenges to the Jewish community are increasing over the world. In times like these, we need to be united more than ever.

Please be sure to include your loved ones in our Yizkor Memorial Book to be distributed during the Yizkor service on Yom Kippur. I also encourage you to add your name to our Rosh Hashanah Greeting Card, which is mailed to our entire congregation in September. By doing so, you have another opportunity to bring a smile to a fellow congregant.

Please look at the Wall of Honor page and make a generous High Holiday pledge. As in the past, we will be offering a monthly payment option that will allow you to spread your tax-deductible donation throughout the year. We strive for 100% participation, as we hope this congregation touches the lives of each family at one point or another – or at many points – throughout the year.

To a sweet and meaningful New Year.

Warmly,

Tmima Grinvald

Temple President
